[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, November 17, 1763. [N°. 967.]

W A R S A W, Auguſt 6.

THE Marſhal of the Crown, and the Palatine of Kaluſch, are ſet out for Dreſden, to communicate to the King the Reſult of the Conferences held at Bialiſtock. In the mean Time, it is ...in that a large Body of Ruſſian Troops have ...ed into Lithuania, and the General who com...ds them has given his Reaſons for ſo doing in ...iſeſto, to the following Purport: "That it is ...ell known by all the World, that in order to ...ſtore the public Tranquility in Poland, the ...uſſian Troops reſided there from 1703 till ...716; and that their Aſſiſtance was earneſtly ...licited of the Emperor Peter the Firſt, by the ...ing and the Republic of Poland; that the ...onvention relative thereto was ſigned in 1716, ...nd ratified by the Diet in 1717; that from this ...ime that Convention was conſtituted a Part of ...e fundamental Laws of the Republic; and ...at it is by Virtue of this Convention, that the ...uſſian Troops have now entered Lithuania, in ...der to quell the Spirit of Diſcord which has ...ng reigned there."

...aris, Auguſt 19. The Affair of Canada is ſtill ...ſed on with great Eagerneſs. Volumes of ...morials and Caſes are drawn up for and againſt ... Accuſed; and in them we already ſee enough ...iſcover clearly how ill the King has been ſerv... and how much the rage of Money has hurt ... general good of the State. It is ſaid that the ...liament inſiſts on taking Cognizance of M. ...y's Affair. The Nation in general are full of ...gnation, that the Honour of the French Name, ... the Intereſts of the Crown, ſhould have been ...ificed almoſt every where, to the Avariciouſneſs ... few Individuals.

...ague, Auguſt 20. The Deputies of the Dutch ...-India Company who were ſent to London to ...minate the Differences between the two Com...es, returned a few Days ago, and will ſoon ...e their Report to the States-General. But we ...w already that their Negociation has proved ...itleſs.

...tockholm, Auguſt 9. Don Belezar, charged with ... Affairs of the Court of Spain, has declared to ... Senate, by order of the King his Maſter, that ...as Reported to him, that, in Conſequence of ... late Treaty of Peace concluded between the ...peror of Morocco and the King of Sweden, ... Crown has, by one of the Articles in the ſaid ...aty, engaged to furniſh that Barbary Prince ... only with a certain Quantity of Ammunition, ... alſo with a Ship well Armed, and provided ...h Naval Stores; adding, that, if this Informa...n proves true, his Catholic Majeſty cannot but ...nt it, and take ſuch Meaſures as the like Ex...encies require. To which the Senate has given ...n Belezar for Anſwer, that there was no foun...ion for ſuch a Remonſtrance; the Preſents in...ded for the Emperor of Morocco, conſiſted ...y of Linens, Cloth, &c. ...Letter from Amſterdam, Auguſt 23.

"... aſſured there will ſoon be a meeting ... Members of the State, in order to ...ays and means to obviate the con... Bankruptcies already declared, ...h as poſſible thoſe that have failed, ... that are in Danger of Breaking. ... the Houſes in queſtion are to ... Accounts to the Stadt-Houſe, ...t does not intend to Favour any ...n guilty of fraudulent Practices."

Ratiſbon, Auguſt 18. Many Reports prevail here, the Truth of which we will not vouch for: Theſe are, that a large Body of Ottoman Troops is advancing towards the Danube; that a Camp is tracing out in the environs of Bielitz in Sileſia; and that the Miſunderſtanding increaſes between Ruſſia and Poland.

Auguſt 22. For this Week paſt they have been enliſting Troops for the ſervice of the King of Pruſſia: This levy, however, is made without any Noiſe, and they take none but ſelect Perſons.

Amſterdam, Aug. 25. Thirty-two Failures in this City are ſuppoſed to amount to Sixty Millions of Dutch Florins, upwards of Five Millions Sterling.

L O N D O N, Auguſt 24.

Great Expectations, with regard to Trade, are formed from the Increaſe of our Poſſeſſions on the Continent of North-America. One Houſe in the City, in particular, is preparing to Ship off, with the firſt opportunity, for Florida and Auguſtine, Goods to the amount of 20000 l.

Auguſt 25. The Forces which the King of Pruſſia has aſſembled in Brandenburgh, makes it apprehended, that he may invade Hanover, if the British Council perſiſt in refuſing to pay the Remainder of the Subſidy owing to him during the War.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 16th Inſtant adviſe, there were at Altena ſeveral Pruſſian, Auſtrian, and Daniſh recruiting Officers, who inliſted a great Number of Men, and ſent them directly away to their reſpective Countries.

The Letters which arrived Yeſterday from Ruſſia, do not mention any thing about a new Revolution in that Empire; by which it is thought that there was no foundation for ſuch a Report.

In a Letter from Plymouth Garriſon, to a Gentleman in Town, dated the 10th Inſt. is the following Paragraph; "I have juſt now received orders to March with two Companies into Cornwall, to quell ſome Riots committed by the Tinners there."

By a Gentleman lately arrived from the Eaſt-Indies, we are informed, that ſome of our Ships, juſt before they ſailed for England, had taken two Snows, the one French, and the other Dutch, each of which had Officers on board of the reſpective Countries; and Diſpatches were found on board for the Troops of each Country to exerciſe Hoſtilities againſt the Engliſh Settlements in that Quarter of the World.

It is ſaid a Plan is laid before a certain great Perſon, for opening the Theatre in the Haymarket for the enſuing Seaſon; the Profits ariſing therefrom to be appropriated to the relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Officers, Soldiers and Sailors, who loſt their Lives in the ſervice of their Country in the late War.

Auguſt 27. By the Holland Mail, which arrived this Afternoon, it is ſaid there is advice that 15 Houſes have ſtopped at Hamburgh, and four at Berlin; which, if true, muſt greatly Alarm the Gentlemen concerned in Commerce. The Letters were ordered to be delivered this Afternoon.

We hear that Lieutenant-Colonel Scott is appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Iſland of Dominico; Lieutenant-Colonel Gore for the Grenadoes; Lieut. Col. Maddiſon for St. Vincent's; and Major Brown, late Commandant of the Barbados Volunteers againſt Martinico, for Tobago.

There are ſaid to be very great Heart-burnings among the People of Diſtinction in Ireland, on Account of ſome Removals and Penſions in the Eſtabliſhment of that Kingdom.

A Letter from Wilna, dated July 22, ſays, "We have received an Account that the Ruſſian Troops have poſitive Orders to enter this grand Dutchy the 30th Inſt. the Conferences to ſtop them having proved ineffectual. In the mean Time the great Treaſurer, Count Fleming, is raiſing Men with the greateſt Expedition and Succeſs, there being a great Number of Men diſcharged by the late Peace, who very willingly enter."

Sept. 1. The Attention of the Public was never ſo fixed to any Object as the preſent unſettled State of the Miniſtry. Some pretend to ſay, that the intended Coalition, or rather the Reſtoration of the Whig Party, will not take place, but that the great Men now at the Helm, are determined to wait the Meeting of Parliament. Others are of Opinion, that Matters are now brought to ſuch a Criſis, that nothing but the Authority and Influence of the great Favourites of the People, will be able to reſtore them to that Situation which every true Lover of his Country would wiſh.

Letters from Holland adviſe, that the Court of Vienna's Apprehenſions of a Rupture with the Turks increaſe more and more.

Private Letters from Peterſburgh ſay, that her Czarian Majeſty is in a declining State of Health, for which various Cauſes are aſſigned.

The 13th Inſt. died at Saxe-Gotha, Prince Louis Erneſt, third Brother to the reigning Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, aged 55 Years, 7 Months, and 15 Days. He was Lieutenant-General in the Service of Cologne and Munſter, Colonel of a Regiment of Infantry, and Knight of the Black Eagle of Poland.

Extract of a private Letter from Hanover, Aug. 6.

"We do not at all regret Peace being reſtored to the Empire, though in ſome reſpects we found the Sweets of the War, as the Quantity of Coin circulating in this Electorate was amazingly increaſed; your Guineas are a handſome Coin; almoſt every Body here has one, or more of them, to keep, by way of Medal, in their Pockets. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was here ſome Weeks ago; the Waterworks in the Gardens of Herenhauſen were played for his Amuſement; theſe Gardens, as well as the Palace, are getting into Order, ſome ſay, for his Reception, tho' others, with more Probability, aſſert, that one of his Majeſty's Brothers is to take up his Reſidence here for ſome Time, that he may be upon the Spot when he is choſen Biſhop of Oſnaburg, &c. which Election will, it is currently reported, ſoon take Place. We begin now to deſpair of ſeeing our Monarch on this Side the Water; would he permit one of his royal Brothers to keep a Court, and reſide in our Capital, it would make his loyal Subjects happy."

It is the general Opinion, that the Dutch have between 20 and 30 Millions in our Funds; but this is a very great Miſtake, and a Partial Overrating the Dutch influence among us; for they have no more than 10 or 12 Millions, at moſt, in all our Funds:—They are ſaid to have one third of our Bank-Stock, the whole of which is 10,960,000 l. and orders are come from Amſterdam to ſell two Millions here, if our Court ſhould be peremptory in ſome capital Demands, the Terror of which has occaſioned the preſent large Bankruptcies among thoſe perfidious and avaricious Republicans.

Public Credit begins to revive again at Amſterdam, where it is ſaid, that ſuch of the Merchants as can demonſtrate that they are at the Bottom in good Circumſtances, will be ſupported. At Hamburgh a Subſcription has been made of three Millions of Marks, which it is hoped will reſtore the Circulation there, and put an End to the apprehenſions of the other.

The State of the Stocks has put many People into a great Conſternation, and many falſe Reports have been raiſed to ſerve particular Ends, and to throw an Odium on ſome of the late Miniſtry; but it is ſaid from good Authority, there will nothing more appear than that ſome Gentlemen have ſold out large Sums in order to ſupport the Reputation of ſome foreign Houſes.

The French are ſo intent upon re-eſtabliſhing their Marine, that they have now ſome Hundreds of Fiſhing Boats at Sea, which have all Three Apprentices on board, inſtead of One.

They write from France (it is ſaid) that M. Poiſſonnier, who went to Port l'Orient to Try the Machine he has invented to freſhen Sea Water, had the greateſt Succeſs in his Experiment. In 24 Hours he freſhened 1500 Pints [750 Engliſh Wine Gallons.] His Machine is very ſimple and not expenſive. With the help of 20 Tons of River or other freſh Water, he makes 80 Tons of good Water, by which, independent of every other Advantage, the Freight of 60 Tons is ſaved. The Experiment is to be tried ſoon at Sea.

The laſt Letters received at the Hague, from Berlin, import, that the King of Pruſſia had given Orders for all his Regiments to be Compleated as faſt as poſſible: And that, in Conſequence thereof,

NEW-YORK, November 3.

Yeſterday arrived the Edward, Capt. Davis, in 7 Weeks from London, by whom we have the London Prints till the 12th of September, containing the following Advices.

St. James's, Sept. 9. His Majeſty in Council, this Day declared John Duke of Bedford, Lord Preſident of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

His Majeſty having appointed the Right Hon. John Earl of Sandwich to be one of his Principal Secretaries of State, his Lordſhip was this Day ſworn one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

This day the Right Hon. Thomas Lord Hyde was ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Hon. Privy Council.

Whitehall, Sept. 10. The King has appointed the Right Hon. John Earl of Egmont, George Hay, Doctor of Laws, the Right Hon. Hans Standley, Eſq; the Right Hon. John Lord Carysford; the Right Hon. Richard Viſcount Howe, the Right Hon. Henry Lord Digby, and Thomas Pitt, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the Kingdoms of Great-Britain and Ireland.

The King has appointed the Right Hon. Wills Earl of Hilſhorough, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, Edward Bacon, the Hon. John Yorke, and George Rice, Eſqrs. the Hon. Francis Baron Orwell, and Bamper Gaſcoigne, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for promoting Trade, and for inſpecting and improving his Majeſty's Plantations in America, and elſewhere.

The King has granted unto the Right Hon. Thomas Baron Hyde, of Hindon in Wilts, and the Hon. Robert Hampden, Eſq; the Office of Poſt-Maſter General.

Great Preparations are making at St. James's for the Baptizing the young Prince, which for certain will be next Wedneſday: And the Ceremony is to be performed by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and her Majeſty is to be Churched at the Chapel Royal the ſame Day.

We are informed that a very ſtrict Inquiry will be made in the next Seſſion of Parliament with Regard to a late Diſcovery that greatly affects the Nation.

We are told that a certain great Nobleman has been abſolutely forbid to appear any more at Court.

It is ſaid, that a Miſapplication of near Three Millions of Money has lately been found out.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3.

With Captain Budden came Paſſengers the Honourable JOHN and RICHARD PENN, Eſquires; the Firſt appointed Governor of this Province. And on Monday laſt his Commiſſion was read at the Court-Houſe, in the Preſence of a great Number of People.

We have Advice from Ligonier, that a Convoy with Proviſions was ſafe arrived there from Bedford, in their Way to Pittſburgh, where, we hear, they were all well, having then met with no Diſturbance from the Indians. Near Bedford five Indians have been lately ſeen, but we do not learn that they had done any Miſchief.

ANNAPOLIS, November 17.

On Saturday the 5th Inſtant, one Charles Randell was found Dead in the Road near Mr. Solomon Wooden's in Baltimore County, who is ſuppos'd to have been inſtantly kill'd by a Fall from his Horſe the Night before.

One Day laſt Week, there was Caught at one Haul of a Seine, at the Narrows of Kent, One Hundred and Seventy-three Buſhels of Fiſh, chiefly Perch; which Sold at 2/6 a Buſhel.

Saturday laſt the Magiſtrates of this County adjourn'd the Court to the Firſt Tueſday in December.

This Year there has been 1606 Hogſheads of Tobacco Inſpected at Elk-Ridge Warehouſe: At the Land of Eaſe, and Taylor's-Landing 426 Hogſheads: At Indian-Landing 309: At Pig-Point, and Sprigg's Warehouſe 720: And at Annapolis Warehouſe 75 Hogſheads. In all, Inſpected this Year 3226 Hogſheads, in Anne-Arundel County.

Tueſday laſt Afternoon and Evening, we had a ſmart N. E. Storm, with heavy Rain and a very high Tide, and next Morning the Ground was cover'd with Snow.

Thurſday laſt Died in Kent County, after long enduring with the utmoſt Patience and Reſignation, the excruciating Pain of the Stone in the Bladder, the Learned and Reverend Mr. JAMES STERLING, Rector of St. Paul's Pariſh in that County, whoſe Death occaſion'd the following Letter:

To the Printers of the MARYLAND GAZETTE.

GENTLEMEN,

A*FTER mentioning the Death of the Reverend Mr.* James Sterling, which I ſuppoſe you will in your next Paper, be pleaſed to inſert what follows, and oblige, Gentlemen,

Your very humble Servant,

Nov. 14, 1763. EUPHRANOR.

Dignum laude virum Muſa vetat mori. HOR.

THO' it be univerſally allowed that there never did exiſt a perfect Character among mere Mortals, yet ſuch are the Prejudices which the Bulk of Mankind entertain in Favour of their Friends, that, in general, the Characters exhibited to the Public of the Dead, come very ſeldom ſhort of abſolute Perfection.——But this never anſwers any good Purpoſe; and frequently the very oppoſite One to what was intended; for the unprejudiced Part of Mankind, never fail to conclude an unnatural Character to be an unjuſt One; whilſt ill-plac'd Panegyric is often turn'd into the ſevereſt Sort of Satire. What Mr. Pope ſays of Writing, may juſtly enough be applied to Human Nature,

Whoever thinks a faultleſs Man to ſee,
Thinks what ne'er was, nor is, nor e'er ſhall be.

Let it be granted therefore that the beſt of Men have their Foibles; yet at the ſame Time it ought to be obſerv'd, that Imperfections in Men of ſuperior Merit, Parts, and Learning, as they are ever plac'd in a conſpicuous Point of Light, are always more taken Notice of, than the ſame or worſe Failings in thoſe of an inferior Claſs. Nor do the invidious Part of the Species ever ſpare their Induſtry, to bring down a brilliant and ſhining Character, to the Level of their own groveling Meanneſs, by the moſt malicious Miſrepreſentations. On the other Hand, however, it muſt be confeſs'd, that all the humane and candid Part of Mankind, view the Imperfections of great Characters, as they do Straws or Dirt in the fine tranſparent Subſtance of Amber.

Pretty! in Amber to obſerve the Forms
Of hairs, or ſtraws, or dirt, or grubs, or worms!
The Things we know are neither rich nor rare,
But wonder how the Devil they got there.

POPE.

In like Manner, upon comparing the bright and brilliant, the friendly, the generous and benevolent Parts of a great and good Man's Character, with perhaps ſome Infirmities of Nature, which, on certain Occaſions, give Knaves or Fools an Advantage over him, we wonder and regret, that Perfections which at ſome Times almoſt equal him to Angels, ſhou'd be mixt with Imperfections, which at other Times render him the Sport or Prey of the meaneſt of Mortals. Yet ſuch, alas! has been the Condition of ſome of the greateſt Geniuſes that ever appear'd in the World.

Agreeable to what has been premis'd, I am now to offer ſomewhat briefly reſpecting the late Reverend Mr. Sterling. And Firſt, I ſhall not heſitate one Moment in affirming, that by His Death the Province of Maryland has loſt a Great and Good Man, a moſt valuable Member of Society; and in ſpite of his Failings (for theſe no doubt he had) I am not afraid to add, that he was an Honour and Ornament to the ſacred Cloth he wore, as well as to the Country he liv'd in; for I will venture to aſſert, without fear of being contradicted by competent Judges, that his uncommon Abilities and extenſive Learning, particularly in all the Branches of polite Literature, ſtand unrival'd in this Part of the World, and I doubt not but ſeveral of the elegant Performances he has favour'd the Public with, will be accounted an inconteſtable Proof of the Aſſertion.——Then he was moſt certainly a Man of a warm, friendly, and feeling Heart, very eaſily melted down into Tenderneſs and Compaſſion for the Sufferings of his Fellow Creatures; and ready on all Occaſions to relieve and aſſiſt them, as far as ever lay in his Power. It is impoſſible that a Man of ſuch univerſal Benevolence ſhou'd not perform all the domeſtic Duties of Huſband, Parent, and Maſter, [illegible] the utmoſt Care and Tenderneſs; and ac[cor]dingly it is well known he had a moſt [amiable] Character, in every one of theſe P[arti]culars. He was no Bigot in Religion, [but] active and zealous in diſcharging the D[uties] of his Function; greatly admir'd as a [most] elegant and pathetic Preacher, by all [who] ever hear'd him; and in particular [much] eſteem'd by his Pariſhioners, which alo[ne is] no ſmall Teſt of his Merit. The many jo[yful] Hours ſpent in his Company (for he w[as a] moſt delightful Companion) together w[ith a] juſt Senſe of his Worth, have drawn [these] few haſty Lines from a Pen, not fond o[f ap]pearing in Public on ſuch Occaſions: A[nd] as he was himſelf a very conſiderable P[oet,] 'tis a Pity methinks he ſhou'd drop into [the] Grave, without ſome little Notice at [least] from the Muſe.——Such as the ſhort No[tice] and my ſmall Turn to Poetry, will af[ford] his Friends are welcome to on the Occaſ[ion,] ſo that if they ſhou'd meet with nothing b[et]ter, which, without Affectation I think [they] very eaſily may, the following Lines may [be] inſcrib'd upon his Grave-Stone by Way [of]

EPITAPH,

On the late Rev. Mr. JAMES STERLING.

STRANGER, whoe'er thou art, one Moment [illegible]
And take a uſeful Leſſon in your Way,
No Tomb ſuperb, or ſpeaking Marble Buſt
Here courts your Eye,—this covers nought but [illegible]
And yet this Duſt (now tremble human Pride,
And lay your gaudy Trappings all aſide)
This humble Duſt, by Worms poſſeſt, contai[ns]
All of Great STERLING that on Earth rema[ins,]
All that remains of Talents ſo ſublime,
As ne'er before adorn'd this Weſtern Clime.
Buried in Silence lies that rapt'rous Tongue,
On which admiring Crowds have often hung,
To hear GOD's comforts to a World diſ[illegible]
With all the Charms of Eloquence, diſpla[y'd]
Or when with ſweeteſt Notes he tun'd his [illegible]
Enraptur'd Souls with Pleaſure dy'd away.
But all the mortal Frame is now diſſolv'd in C[illegible]
His nobler Part has upwards wing'd it's flig[ht]
To where congenial Spirits dwell in Light,
And thence, with Pity views vain Man, who [illegible]
With his whole Race, conſume to Worms and D[uſt.]
